

FIRE LATE LAST NIGHT completely destroyed this automobile owned by Edward Shaw of Glendale. Firemen reported that the blaze had apparently started under the dashboard due to a short in the wiring. Fire Captain Warren Empey reported that damage exceeded $1,600. Early yesterday firemen received a report of a fire at the Lone Palm Hotel, but it was out when they arrived. It was dry grass around a palm tree. This morning another alarm took firemen to 927 Mel Avenue, where it was found that gardeners were burning cuttings from tamarisk trees. (Sun Photo).

Miller, Marilyn Decline Comment On Conviction

WASHINGTON — Playwright Arthur Miller and his actress wife, Marilyn Monroe, celebrated her 31st birthday today in seclusion with "no comment" on his contempt of Congress conviction.

The Pulitzer Prize winner, free on $1,000 bail, and his blonde wife left their New York home Friday by car. A few hours earlier Federal Judge Charles F. McLaughlin here found Miller guilty on two counts of contempt for refusing to identify persons at a 1947 Communist writers meeting.

"I WILL HAVE no comment at this time and neither will my wife," Miller said after hearing the judge's verdict.

Miller may not be sentenced for two or three weeks or longer while McLaughlin awaits receipt of the usual pre-sentencing report from the probation office.

In that time, the case might be complicated by a Supreme Court ruling on a similar case involving Illinois Labor Leader John T. Watkins. The high court is expected to hand down a decision on the Watkins case before the close of its current term expected in mid-June.

McLAUGHLIN CITED an appeals court ruling in the Watkins case in his 15-page decision. It said the fact that an inquiry "may reveal something or 'expose' something (one's friends) is incidental and without effect upon the validity of the inquiry."

SPINSTER COMMITS SUICIDE BY LOCKING SELF IN HOPE CHEST

HARDWICK, Mass. — A 44-year-old spinster committed suicide by locking herself in a hope chest, the medical examiner said today.

The victim was Miss Helen Marick, 44. Her sister, Mrs. Edward Misiasek, returned from a shopping trip Friday and found the five foot long hope chest moved from its customary place near a wall.

Mrs. Misiasek opened the chest and found her sister's body among the linens and feminine finery.

Police said the chest was cedar and airtight and had a spring lock making it impossible to open from the inside.

United Fund Petition Circulation to Start

Setting a tentative campaign goal of $100,000, a resolution calling for organization of a United Fund for Palm Springs was today offered to the public by H. Roger Williams, Chamber of Commerce United Fund Committee Chairman.

Publication of the resolution, asking that all fund drives be consolidated into "one great humanitarian effort" followed signing of the petition endorsing the fund principle by Mayor Florian Boyd.

WILLIAMS SAID that the next step in promoting adoption of the United Fund is circulation of petitions stipulating that signers subscribe to fund principles and recommend the Fund's incorporation.

The resolution sets a tentative annual goal of $100,000, to be apportioned to the various agencies which normally conduct independent fund drives during the year. Creation of the resolution followed Mayor Boyd's recommendation that Chamber of Commerce President Tom Kieley initiate action to solicit cooperation and sanction of city civic leaders, businessmen and home owners.

NOTING THE success of such

Herbert Richardson, Trailer News Publisher, Succumbs

Herbert Richardson, 51-year-old publisher of the Desert Trailer News and director of the Palm Springs Trailer Rally, died at the Desert Hospital at 1:30 yesterday afternoon.

Born in Massachusetts, he came to Palm Springs from Dayton, Ohio, two years ago, and worked for The Desert Sun as a correspondent for the local trailer parks. A year ago he started the Desert Trailer News.

During the past two years he has directed the Desert Trailer Rally, one of the big events in the desert, and served as executive secretary of the Travel Trailer Clubs of America, which has its headquarters in Palm Springs. He was a charter member of the Desert Press Club of Palm Springs.

Richardson is survived by his wife, Bernice; two sons, Herbert Jr., of Bonn, Germany, and David, of Lakewood, Ohio; a stepson, Floyd Edwards of San Francisco, and two sisters.

Funeral services will be held tomorrow at Wiefels and Son Chapel, with the Rev. Dr. James Blackstone, Jr., officiating. The body will be sent to Fowler, Kansas.

Violent Weather Onslaught Takes Five Lives in Texas

BY UNITED PRESS Tornadoes and torrential downpours last night roared into Texas in the wake of other severe weather which has scarcely allowed the Lone Star State to get back on its feet.

The violent onslaught took at least five Texan lives while 11 inches of rain was reported at some points. Throughout the rest of the nation, relatively calm weather prevailed although rain fell in many areas and lightning knocked out power transformers in Vermont.

FLASH FLOODS

overflowed into San Antonio and Fort Worth, and five families were forced to flee their homes in Bicketville, Tex. Winds rushing up to 70 miles an hour destroyed two homes at Monahans, Tex., while lightning struck and killed two 14-year-old boys at Arlington who were travelling on a motor scooter.

Fortunately, the 11-inch rain which sloshed over La Pryor, Tex., settled on open rangeland and trickled off with little damage.

Several areas of showers and thunderstorms were patched into the warm, humid stretch from the Ohio Valley to the New England and the mid-Atlantic states, but rainfall east of the Appalachians was generally light.

A DIFFERENT story was told in the West where shower activity extended into the central plains and over the Rockies.

Three tornado funnels were spotted late yesterday, two in Missouri and a third in Kansas. Meanwhile, the weather outlook for today is somewhat improved. Cool Canadian air dropped into the northern plains, Nebraska and the upper Mississippi Valley late yesterday.

Searchers Find Twin Boys After 16 Hour Ordeal

ORTING, Wash. — Searchers today found the 21-month-old twin boys who had been missing since Friday afternoon after a 16½ hour search.

The twins, Kerry and Kevin Yanasak, were found about 9:15 a.m. P.D.T. in a heavily-wooded area about two miles from their farm home near here. They disappeared yesterday when they went out with their puppy "Buddy" and failed to return home.

Their disappearance touched off a search that included more than 1,000 volunteers before three unidentified men found the children and their dog this morning.

School Board Appointments Set for July 1

Date Tentatively Set by Rumwell, Muller Disagrees

July 1 was the date tentatively set today for appointment of two new Board of Education members to fill vacancies created by the resignation last week of Board Chairman Raymond Sorum and Member Helen Staley.

Remaining members Arnold Rumwell and Frank Muller, charged with the task of filling the unexpired board terms, said they had considered and interviewed numerous applicants but declined to name prospective members.

Rumwell said he wanted to hold off the appointments until newly elected board member Charles Wallace takes office July 1, but Muller said he felt the appointments should be made as soon as possible.

THE THIRD member remaining on the decimated school board, Haig Harris, indicated he would not participate in the appointments. Harris, voted out of office in last month's board election, said he would leave matters concerning future school district policy to his replacement.

Rumwell, a Palm Springs attorney, said that no decisions on new appointments would be made "until everybody agrees" on the candidates. He said he didn't feel he should "divulge the names of nominees" until the board was ready to make an appointment.

EXPLAINING HIS reasons for waiting until July 1 to take official action, Rumwell stated:

"As long as we've got to do it, we might as well wait until Mr. Wallace takes his place. I don't think that 40 per cent of a school board should appoint 40 per cent of the board."

Rumwell said he and Muller have been approached "by everybody" seeking appointment to the board.

"We must be very careful," Rumwell said, "it is my endeavor to get the best people possible for the good of the board. However, I don't think we should wait any later than July 1 to make appointments."

Muller disagreed on the date of appointments, but noted that there has been no "real meeting of the minds" on the issue. Both members expected to discuss the problem this weekend.

THE WEATHER

Desert Area Forecast: Generally clear today through Sunday. Slightly warmer today. High temperature today 90 to 100 in upper valleys, 100 to 110 lower valleys. Yesterday's high was 106, low, 60.

TRAGEDY LURKED in the background as Miss Arizona, beautiful Lynn Freyse, of Tucson, Ariz., greeted Michael E. Catches, of Hayward, pilot of the first plane to land here yesterday in the cross-country race from Hayward to Tucson, and his crew. At that time, unknown to the crews of the 57 planes that landed here, the plane carrying millionaire sportsman Alvin Hewitt and an unidentified passenger had disappeared. Both were found dead in the wreckage of their single-engine aircraft on the edge of Edwards Air Force Base this morning. (Desert Sun Photo).

Tragedy Hits Air Race, Plane Crash Kills Two

Tragedy stalked a cross-country air race from Hayward, Calif., to Tucson, Ariz., today as two race entrants died in the crash of their plane while their flight-mates unknowingly participated in the revelry of a Palm Springs banquet last night.

Edwards Air Force Base officials reported the finding of a plane carrying Pilot Alvin Hewitt and an unidentified passenger at the edge of the base this morning.

Both Hewitt, of Hayward, and the passenger were dead when sheriff's deputies found the wreckage of their Bonanza aircraft.

THE PLANE reportedly stopped for repairs at Bakersfield yesterday afternoon in the first stop of the cross-country, light-plane race. Hewitt was reported missing after all 57 other race entrants checked in at Palm Springs Airport yesterday afternoon.

Not realizing that one of their competitors was probably dead at the time, the exuberant racers landed and were whisked off to the Rossmore Hotel for a cocktail party and banquet in their honor. Cheerfully greeted on landing by Miss Arizona, Lynn Freyse, of Tucson, the fliers took on a festive air before resuming the third leg of their journey this morning.

The racers gloomily resumed their flight this morning. They will make one stop at Blythe and then continue on to Tucson.

St. Theresa School to Hold Graduation Exercise Monday

Graduation exercises will be held Monday for students of St. Theresa Catholic School.

Twenty-five students, 16 girls and 9 boys, will hear Father Brenner give the commencement talk, which will be preceded by a full day of activity.

At 9 a.m., students will attend Mass with their families, followed by a breakfast at which the graduates and their mothers will be hosted by the seventh grade.

THREE AWARDS will be made at the breakfast, the Lions Club Citizenship award, the Knights of Columbus award, and a history award presented by the school.

Commencement exercises will be held at 7:30 p.m., and at that time an award will be made to a student in each grade for religious and general excellence, plus additional special awards to eighth-grade students, Larcissan, Sodalist, and scholarship (two outstanding students).

Following graduation, there will be a graduation dance held at the Palm Springs Playhouse, with Pat Barbara and her orchestra supplying the music.

Two Juveniles Arrested for Beating Youth

Two Palm Springs juveniles were transported to Riverside last night by Police Officer T. M. Aitken, after being arrested on suspicion of beating up a third teenager.

A 17-year-old Palm Springs boy was reportedly beaten and kicked by another boy his age, while a third, a 16-year-old, stood by holding a sawed-off .22 caliber rifle on the victim.

The boys were reportedly fighting over the affections of a girl, the assaulter claiming that the victim had "taken out his girl."

Mightiest Test Proves Successful

Packed Punch Of 5 Million Tons of TNT

LONDON — The explosion of Britain's second and mightiest hydrogen bomb was expected today to touch off a new wave of protests against nuclear weapons tests both at home and abroad.

The thermonuclear device was detonated Friday in the skies over the Christmas Island proving grounds in the mid-Pacific. Aid Vice Marshal W. E. Oulton, the British H-bomb task force commander, said the bomb's power was in the megaton range, or equivalent to one million tons of TNT.

UNOFFICIAL REPORTS said the superweapon packed a punch equivalent to that of five million tons of TNT.

United Press staff correspondent Richard Vourmand, one of the newsmen who witnessed the awesome blast, reported it was believed to be the first known test of the H-bomb capable of delivery by an unmodified medium bomber.

In his report, Vourmand said it was a truly operational weapon which Britain's "V" series bombers can haul from bases in Britain to targets as far away as Moscow.

BRITAIN JOINED the United States and the Soviet Union as a major nuclear power when it touched off its first hydrogen bomb on May 15. The test brought angry reaction from the opposition Labor Party and official protests from atomic-conscious Japan.

Vourmand was one of a handful of correspondents who witnessed the H-bomb test from the deck of the 1,590-ton British frigate H.M.S. Alert, some 35 miles away.

Squadron Leader David Roberts, 33, the pilot, dropped the bomb in a complex corkerscrew maneuver that set it spinning into space like a pitcher's curved ball while the four-jet bomber raced to safety.

GOING TO LAND OF MIDNIGHT SUN? TAKE DESERT SUN

It's vacation time in Palm Springs, which probably means you'll be traipsing to such cooling-off spots as the Land of the Midnight Sun.

But don't forget, The Desert Sun travels everywhere, so why not keep tabs on your friends and neighbors while you enjoy your summer jaunt.

Just Dial 5065, The Desert Sun, and ask the Circulation Department to write out a vacation subscription (at no extra cost) to fill in your vacation months.

We'll make sure the Sun follows you wherever you go.

Late News Bulletins

ANGELS CAMP UP — A smash-up involving 5 motorcycles took one life and injured 4 other persons early today at the Frogtown Fairgrounds south of here.

TEL AVIV, Israel UP — Four Israeli soldiers were wounded today when their patrol vehicles struck land mines along the Gaza Strip border, an Israeli military spokesman said.

METZ, France UP — One U. S. soldier was killed and another injured today in a pre-dawn assault by two unidentified Algerians, U. S. and French authorities announced. Motive was robbery.

MONMOUTH, Ill. UP — The daughter of Gov. Vernon Thompson of Wisconsin has been suspended from Monmouth College on grounds her boy friend bootlegged beer to her in the school infirmary.

FIRST SIGNER of the petition subscribing to a United Fund for the Village was Mayor Florian Boyd. Witnessing the occasion, left to right, were Roger Williams, chairman of the Committee for

British Protest New United States Quotas on Imports of Textiles

LONDON (AP)—Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd delivered to U.S. Ambassador John Hay Whitney yesterday a formal British protest against new U.S. quotas on imports of woolen textiles.

Diplomatic observers were poised for an American protest over Britain's decision to relax the Red China trade embargo when Whitney arrived at the foreign office.

But an official government communique said the protest was delivered in the opposite direction.

The communique said Whitney was told the American decision to allow only 14 million pounds of woolen textiles imported without tariff in 1957 would cause "uncertainty and dislocation in the United Kingdom wool textile industry."

"The Foreign Secretary said that in view of the need for the United Kingdom to earn dollars to pay for the very large purchases which it makes in the United States, he would have hoped that the quota established could have been more in line with actual performance in 1956, that is, about six and one-half per cent instead of five per cent of average domestic production in the United States," the communique said.

Muelder Reports Dance Unofficial

Schools Supt. Wallace Muelder today announced that the current fund drive being conducted by high school senior class students for an all-night supervised graduation party is not sponsored or sanctioned by school officials.

"In fact," Muelder said, "we do not approve of the party as it will last past midnight."

In the past, the party was sponsored by the Youth Coordinating Council, which this year is without funds for this activity.

Good SWIM Lessons

By Coach Carter

10 years swim and figure coach to top movie, stage and radio stars, their children and other important people in all walks of life before, during and since, who needed the best for their health and figure to continue their gain, their fabulous salaries, (others social prestige), deductible as operating expenses when for health and figure necessity.

Don't ever, "If a person of means and high IQ" learn to swim first with your face down in the waters dangerous chemicals and germs. It's the worst thing you can ever do for your health, figure and pleasure. For if you do you can't ever except by a miracle, learn to breathe and see ever after.

It's wise and best to learn by the face up semi-crawl teaching method where you breathe right off and see right off. It's the best figure and health benefit, it will do more than anything else in keeping your figure from becoming fat, flabby, saggy, baggy, waggly.

Many Dangers Of Suggestion Told in Sermon

The power of God to deliver from the despotic tendencies of mental suggestion and will power is brought out in the Lesson-Sermon, "Ancient and Modern Necromancy, alias Mesmerism and Hypnotism, Denounced," in all Christian Science churches on Sunday.

A reference from I Samuel (2:3) admonishes, "Talk no more so exceeding proudly; let not arrogance come out of your mouth: for the Lord is a God of knowledge, and by him actions are weighed."

This thought is correlated in the Lesson-Sermon with passages from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, where she says, "The despotic tendencies, inherent in mortal mind and always germinating in new forms of tyranny, must be rooted out through the action of the divine Mind."

"Man is properly self-governed only when he is guided rightly and governed by his Maker, divine Truth and Love." (pp. 225, 106)

"There is no wisdom nor understanding nor counsel against the Lord." This declaration from Proverbs (21:30) is the Golden Text.

Baptism Set At Community

Rev. Warren McClain, pastor of the Palm Desert Community Church announced today that his sermon tomorrow at 11 a.m. will be entitled "Everyone That Thirsteth."

The services will be followed by a rite of infant baptism.

Starting a week from tomorrow, church services will be changed to 9:30 a.m.

'Word of God' To Be Theme Of Graduation

"The Word of God" is the theme of the Sunday School Graduation program at the Community Church this Sunday at 10:30 a.m. Each department will present one of the divisions of the Sacred Scriptures.

The Nursery Department, Mrs. Charles McDonald, superintendent will present "The Law of God" in two songs. The Beginners Department, Mrs. Al Normandin, superintendent, will present "The Poetry of God" in two songs and the recitation of the 23rd Psalm by Joy Aikin.

"The Prophets of God" presented by the Primary Department, Mrs. Stephen Smith, superintendent will include Jimmy Shepherd, Lanny Aikin, Dana Hollinger and Robby Tarr, who take the part of Prophets. Bibles are to be presented to the graduates of this department, with white Bibles given to the girls who have completed their memory work.

THE JUNIOR Department, Mrs. Frank Little, superintendent, will be presenting "The Good News of God." Merle Moore, Ourdell Rackov and Jacqueline Tonke, members of the graduating class who have completed all of the required memory work will recite scripture passages. The Junior Choralists will sing two numbers "We Love Him" and "Praise Him."

The Junior High Department, Mrs. Maybelle Ostberg, superintendent will present "The Acts of God" through the story of the book of Acts and the key memory verses. Bonnie Blackstone will sing "So Near To God Am I," and the Junior High Choir will sing the "Cherubim Song."

FROM THE HIGH School graduating class Roger Williams, Gary Waters, Correne Copelan, Bill Beck and Richard Bennett will give minute messages on the Epistles of the New Testament, and the High School Choir will sing.

Dr. James H. Blackstone, Jr., pastor of the church, will close the program with the challenge of the Sunday School. This program will be held in the Sanctuary at 10:30 (please note change in time) taking the place of the morning worship service. A cordial invitation is extended to all to come and enjoy this program given by the young people.

There will be no evening service at the church this Sunday in order to permit relatives and friends of the High School graduates to attend the Baccalaureate Service at the Palm Springs High School. The Sunday School bus has been discontinued during the summer months and will not be running this Sunday.

Final Safety Slogan of Year Is Announced

Safety slogan to be observed by students in the Palm Springs Unified School District is, "Carry a white handkerchief in hand when walking on the highway at night," according to George Bond, school safety director and superintendent of transportation.

Each week a different slogan is selected to be repeated by students as they board buses en route to, or from school.

This will be the final safety slogan of the year, as summer vacation starts next week.

'God, The Universe, and You,' Is Dr. Glen's Closing Sermon

Sunday, June 2, marks Dr. Irma Glen's closing service of the season at the Church of Religious Science which meets at the El Paso Theatre at 10:45 a.m.

However, the Church is retaining the theatre for the summer when a Layman's Discussion Group will be held each Sunday morning at 9:45. This group will be under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Langlois with participation of several practitioners and board members.

Miss Elaine Noble will continue as soprano soloist and Mr. Langlois will be at the organ. There will be hymn singing and healing meditations and treatment. All are cordially invited to attend.

DR. GLEN WILL return early in October and a very active 1957-58 season is planned. During the summer Rev. Glen will speak at the annual seminar of the Churches of Religious Science at Asilomar, on the Monterey peninsula, July 7-13.

She also will be active at the forty-second annual Congress of the International New Thought Alliance to be held at the Statler Hotel July 21-27, after which she flies to the east coast to fill engagements in Boston and Cohasset, Mass. and in Baltimore and Easton, Md.

From Aug. 11 through Sept. 2, Dr. Glen will conduct the Sunday morning and Thursday evening services at the Ananda Ashrama in La Crescenta. The Ashrama is a Vedanta Centre founded by the late Swami Paramananda of the Sri Ramakrishna Order of India. It is Rev. Glen's purpose to correlate the Vedanta philosophy with that of modern metaphysics.

THE SUBJECT, "God the Universe, and You," has been chosen for Sunday, June 2. It is a sermon which will be given by Dr. Irma Glen at various religious centers throughout America this summer. As is her custom, Dr. Glen will interpret several of her own organ compositions and Miss Noble will sing one of Dr. Glen's song offerings entitled, "This I Know."

The Church of Religious Science extends its gratitude to the members and friends who have contributed toward a successful and rewarding season.

'True Love' Set As Sermon Topic

In recognition of the month of June as "wedding month," "True Love" will be the sermon topic by the Rev. Richard A. Uzzel at the First Baptist Church in Thermal next Sunday at the 11 a.m. Worship Service.

The church will also observe the Communion service during the worship hour.

JAMESTOWN FESTIVAL REVIVES GREAT AMERICAN HERITAGE

On Dec. 20, 1606, three small sailing vessels set out from London to establish a British foothold along the new found coast of Virginia. This famous voyage of the Susan Constant, the Godspeed and the Discovery began a series of events that changed human history. Four months later the party sailed into Chesapeake Bay.

Commemorating the three hundred and fiftieth anniversary of this historic event floating replicas of the three ships sailed up the James River recently and anchored off Jamestown. This was among the first events of the Jamestown festival which will continue until the end of November.

Westerners who visit the East coast this summer will not want to miss the Jamestown festival of 1957. Being presented by the Commonwealth of Virginia and the Governments of the United States and Great Britain those to whom Jamestown, Yorktown and Williamsburg are only recollections from their American history books will find a visit to these American shrines of particular interest.

It was in this little triangle along the James River that the first settlers established a colony 350 years ago, and where for the next 169 years a new nation was hewn out of the wilderness. It was at Yorktown that the long struggle for free representative government culminated in the winning of American independence when Cornwallis surrendered to George Washington.

Daily Programs Set

In this charming countryside along the York and James Rivers daily programs will be presented throughout the summer months to freshen America's memory of those freedom loving and adventurous settlers who first settled in Jamestown.

Among the outstanding events will be the presentation of two outdoor historical dramas: The Common Glory and The Founders written by Pulitzer prize playwright Paul Green. The whole area can easily be visited in a single day and is rich in historical significance and will serve as a stimulant to those who may have forgotten the great American heritage.

Having recently traveled over this hallowed ground I heartily recommend visiting these American shrines, particularly this summer when the events of the Jamestown festival will make it doubly interesting.

What About Federal Aid to Education?

This reporter, on a two-month lecture tour of the nation, found himself right in the middle of a national controversy over federal aid to education.

Opinion is strongly divided on this issue between those who fear that any federal aid will result in federal control of education and those who believe that without federal aid education will break down in certain areas of the nation.

OBVIOUSLY, THE strongest proponents of federal aid are the school people. Because we lecture to colleges and schools all over the nation frequently, it is our privilege to know many able administrators and educators, who are dedicated to a profession so vital to the future of America.

No one can question their sincerity, for the very nature of their chosen profession clearly indicates a degree of financial sacrifice rare indeed in this materialistic profit-seeking world.

We believe that some school districts across the nation need help desperately. But it is our considered opinion, after visiting some of those backward educational districts, that their state and communities have not done all that could be done to relieve their own problems.

IT IS ALSO our opinion that resorting to federal aid in education is another step closer to opening the floodgates to more federal bureaucracy in the affairs of the states, with many disadvantages to the national economy itself.

We don't believe in the premise of those who support federal aid to education that it is fair, for example, for the State of New York to raise some $62,000,000 among its citizens to pay for the school bill of the citizens of Mississippi, Alabama or New Mexico.

Nor do we believe it is fair for the citizens of Mississippi, Alabama, New Mexico and others to pay taxes for the direct benefit of a federal project which would reduce the cost of power for the people of Oregon. We are opposed to such federal aid.

WE ARE NOT opposed to many other types of federal aid, whereby all the investors, or taxpayers of the nation, derive some direct benefit for their contribution. For this reason we are opposed to the proposed Kelley Bill on federal aid to education which passed the House committee on education recently by a vote of 21-9.

The Kelley bill, for instance, provides that all the taxpayers of the nation put up $1,600,000,000 for four years, at the rate of $400,000,000 a year, for federal aid to education.

The idea is that this sum will be distributed to some of the states, at the expense of other states. The states of California, New York, Illinois, Michigan, Ohio, Pennsylvania, for example, would be compelled to put up near 58 per cent of this sum, but will only get back in federal aid to their educational systems about 37 per cent of what they pay in. In other words, they will pay about $228,000,000 and get back only $376,000,000.

IN ADDITION TO this they will pay additional taxes to the federal government for the administration of this huge sum of money across the 48 states. This will add another bureaucracy to the fantastic federal payroll . . . with the inevitable hue and cry for more and more federal aid and more and more bureaucracy, with no end in sight.

For if you do it to education, why not medicine, why not law, why not radio, journalism, trucking, utilities, transportation, etc.? The fact is that many proponents of federal aid to education don't think it's immoral or unfair for the citizens of one state to pay for something by which only the citizens of another state or community benefit.

The argument that education in Florida influences the citizens of California is as remote as the distance between the two.

ON THE SURFACE it may sound reasonable to some (who do not bother to examine all the angles to federal aid) that it's proper for the federal government to use tax money for the purpose of aid to education. But these overlook other involvements which are not apparent on the surface.

For instance, this federal aid to education will be under the control of a "Commissioner of Education," who in reality will be in the investment banking business. For Title 2 of the Kelly bill provides that $300,000,000 of the fund will be set up for school bond purchase, with a further authority to purchase at his discretion obligations of local educational agencies up to $750,000,000.

This is based on the theory that the school districts' credit is so bad no private bank would loan the money. But since the federal bureaucracy can afford to operate at a loss, with other people's money, it can take over the job. It is of course a legal method of robbing Peter to pay Paul.

UNDER THE FEDERAL aid bill, the commissioner of education, appointed by a political party, selects at his discretion which of the 57,000 school districts in the U.S. should receive federal aid. These will be selected on the basis of "need and other deserving qualities," according to the bill.

What this spells out accurately we cannot say. But it could smell of politics . . . and it could be that the districts and states who sweated out their bond issues and built schools and paid decent teachers' salaries, will get none of the federal pie, because they don't need it . . . and those who dragged their feet and did not raise the money would get it from the federal government, especially if they voted for the right party in the last election.

WHAT A BONANZA indeed for the school districts who failed to support their schools . . . and what a penalty for those school districts who raised the merchants' business taxes and the property owners' taxes, as they rightfully should to pay for decent schools.

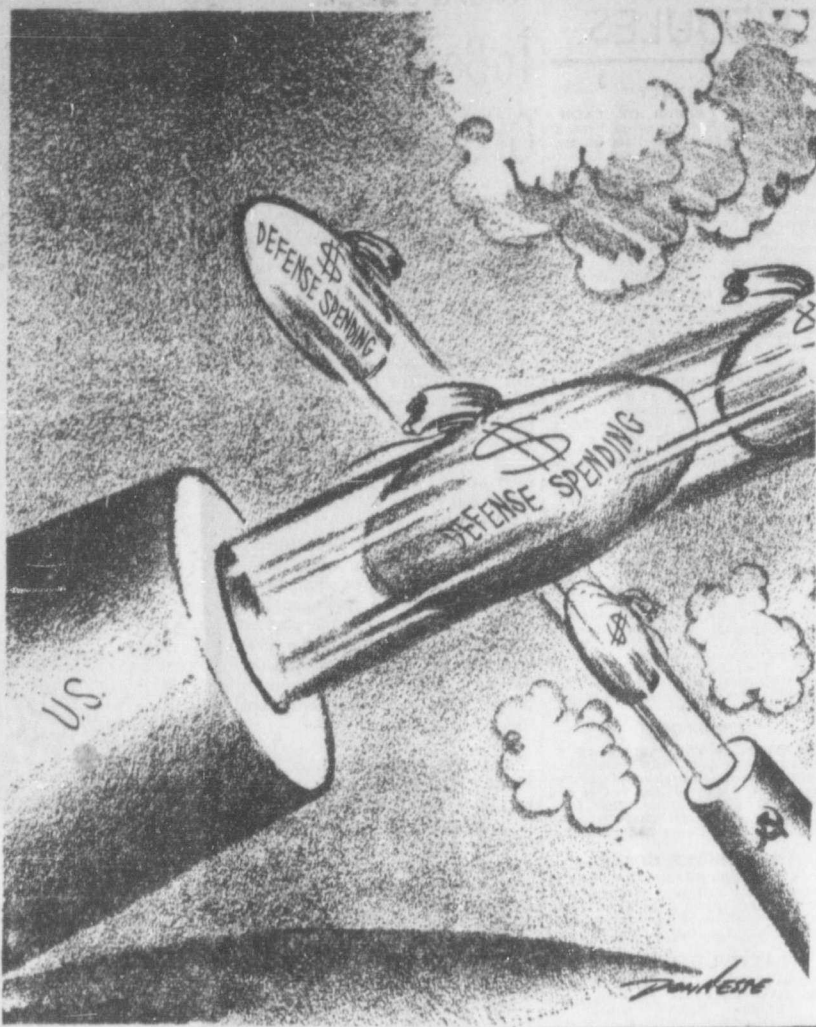

Human nature being what it is, it is likely that few states and few school districts are going to break their necks to raise school money . . . when Uncle Sam is waiting around the corner with a loaded check book.

It is our opinion that some school districts need help badly. But we don't believe that the needs of these school districts can be best served by the federal government, for federal aid involves more serious consequences than the inadequacy of education in some parts of the nation.

We repeat, that in our opinion it is not fair for the State of Mississippi, which will contribute in taxes only $800,000 toward the federal aid to education program, to receive $6,506,886 from the program derived from the funds of millions of taxpayers in other parts of the nation.

To add this new burden, on top of an already overburdened U.S. treasury, $275 billions in the red, does not appear to us to be in the best interests of the national

THIS SIDE of The Sun

Today is the day,
Vacation at last,
Only one drawback,
It goes to blank fast.

So here it is, the first of June. Should be another beautiful month. Just like May. But I'll leave it to you kind people to enjoy. I'm off and running.

HAVE SEVERAL things on my mind. Got to see if they are still improving the breed. Investigate the situation on the railroads. Look over some major league teams. Can't wait until, if and when, the Dodgers come out here. Plan to look over the situation in person at either the County Stadium in Milwaukee or at Wrigley Field in Chicago, 25 miles to the south. Looks like a busy summer.

HAVE MY schedule all arranged. No getting up to look the dawn sunrise in the eye. Will sleep in until at least 7 a.m. until I get accustomed to the lazy life. Then, maybe, until 8 a.m.

When the postman comes around with a copy of The Desert Sun, will he myself into my study which is a typewriter stand right next to my bed.

From 11 a.m. until noon, depending upon the agility of my two index fingers and the ability to think, I shall cajole a column out of my old (venerable) Woodstock.

THAT IS my planned program except on the days I will devote to being kind to animals. At Hollywood or Del Mar, depending on the time of year.

There I shall frequent the $2 show windows. Hoping my selections move as fast as the vacation days.

Everything is all set. Filled up two king-sized wastebaskets with an accumulation of material acquired in the past 10 months. Stuff I didn't want to throw away because you never know when you might want it. You never do.

BESIDES, I know a little place on West Water Street in Milwaukee which has the best sauerfleisch and kase. And weiner schnitzel in Cincinnati. Po Boy sandwiches in New Orleans.

Want to see the Mississippi River from the windows of the Golden State, the cotton fields down south from the IC's Panama Limited, the Pecos from the Sunset.

Go down in the subway on State Street and get out of the El at Wrigley Field. Fight the commuters on the Burlington out to Hinsdale to see my grandsons. Play train with them.

BUT DON'T exult too soon. I'll be back. As they say over on the society pages, I've got sand in my shoes. And I'll have to come back to be able to buy shoes.

I won't tell you to keep the home fires burning. It may be too hot for that.

Keep the coolers whirring and I'll be seeing you.

SO YOU LONG for the good old days, eh? Read the othe, day that some of the old codgers who keep complaining that things ain't what they used to be, always forget to include themselves.

INEZ ROBB:

Perfect Time for Stomachs

In this best of all possible worlds, now—if ever—come perfect days for the man whose demigod is his stomach.

There is a time to fast and a time to feast, and now is the time to mask the numerals on the bathroom scales, if not actually to destroy the monster. The voice of the turtle is heard in the land, calling man to the table to enjoy the bounties of spring.

Summer's warm abundance and autumn's ripe plenty may be more fulsome, but it is spring that blesses us with the delicacies of asparagus and strawberries. Can anyone ask for more?

WHO COULD ASK for a more fitting celebration of the rites of spring than plump, tender asparagus in hot butter sauce followed by scarlet strawberries sweetened by the sun?

Asparagus is a queen among vegetables, and a beauty queen at that, with its pale green stalk flushed clear to its delicate tip with violet. Who, if he casts a seeing eye upon asparagus, can be surprised to learn that it is a member of the lily family and a double cousin of the lily of the valley?

It is a delicacy that civilized man has enjoyed for millenniums. Cato the Elder, in his book, "On Farming," gave the Roman world rules for its cultivation that have not changed much in 2,000 years. If Lucullus left none of his recipes for its preparation, neither did he have a pressure cooker, which I favor in preparing this superb vegetable.

SIXTY to 90 seconds, according to the size of the stalk, at 15 pounds pressure is my favorite recipe for this jewel.

It should be cooked until it is tender — only that and nothing more. It is a major culinary crime to reduce this gem to pulp, to boil it until it is soggy, dispirited and tasteless. It must retain its shape and its spirit.

It must be taken steaming hot from the pan, put on a hotplate, treated to hot butter or hollandaise sauce and served immediately. The family should already be seated at the table, reverently and expectantly awaiting this treat, and should fall to the minute it is served. Asparagus should not be asked to wait on time, tide or a tardy diner.

WHO, WITH HIS roots in the country, does not remember asparagus cut in two-inch lengths and served up in a hot cream sauce? You can't hardly get that kind no more in a city. But it is delicious when done by a master, say my Aunt Nell.

There are those who like their asparagus cold. Vinaigrette, for example. Ah, well, it takes all kinds to make a world.

As for strawberries, they deserve a whole sonnet in themselves. And whoever invented strawberry shortcake (I am a true believer in short, unsweetened biscuit dough) should long since have been elevated to the Hall of Fame.

And now there is no time to hymn spring's other treats, young scallions, radishes, Bibb lettuce, the first tender peas, the succulent carrots no bigger than a thumb—

Eat, my friend, and be merry. You can always diet tomorrow.

Editor, The Desert Sun

Your editorial regarding the fame of Palm Springs is right up to the minute with the enclosed portion of an ad I clipped from the La Canada Valley Sun—the weekly newspaper of the community in which we lived before moving to Palm Springs.

This newspaper, to which I still subscribe (as well as The Desert Sun) has, more or less, a copy of the picture and article relating to the Palm Springs salad you had in your paper about a week or so ago.

So our fame is now spreading with a salad!

EARL WILSON:

A Visit With Papa

HAVANA—It was too bad that we Three Old Men of the Sea—from New York—didn't talk to Ernest Hemingway before we got up at 8 a.m. to go marlin-fishing here in Havana Harbor.

Because all we got was sun-burn.

And when we came creaking back at 3 p.m., my B.W. was waiting, with a hot message.

"Mary Hemingway called and said you wouldn't catch anything," she said. "By the way, what did you get?"

"Oh, shut up," we said evasively.

"Anyway, how did Mary Hemingway know in advance what lousy fishermen we were?"

"You'd better ask her," the B.W. answered.

SIX OF US—kind of a traveling cocktail party—went limousining out to see Papa Hemingway and "Miss Mary" at their "finca" or farm, in the village of San Francisco de Paula. We were greeted on the steps by Papa and Mary and 10 or 12 dogs.

"We were afraid you wouldn't get anything today," Mary said. "There wasn't any current, was there?"

"What's current?" asked Old Man of the Sea Paul Sann, the editor.

"Don't act so ignorant, Paul," snapped Old Man of the Sea Carl Erbe, the publicist. "It's electrical power!"

Whereupon Papa and Miss Mary laughed at our innocence. All the same, I did get a "strike"—back in Ohio we called it a "bite"—on my line. It was a beauty, too. I could see it gleaming in the hot shimmering sun—one of the biggest banana stalks in Havana Harbor. Even it got away.

PAPA WAS LOOKING his slimmest and trimmest as he sat down in the big living room and drank some rose wine which damages the innards less than the hard stuff.

"Papa's feeling good," Mary said.

"They've got a couple stories going around about you," I said. "First, that you're moving to Spain. Second, that you're pretty sick."

Sitting there in trunks that showed his powerful legs, with his beard neatly trimmed and his face looking rugged and not fat or jowly, he said, "If I ever moved anywhere, it'd be Africa. As for me dying, well, there are s.o.b.'s dying every day who never died before, but I expect to outlive the purveyors of those stories."

Doctors have told him he has at least 15 years left.

"You still up early every morning writing?" I asked.

"SURE, I GOT a lot of things to do," nodded the Nobel Prize winner who has been a literary sensation approximately 30 years and is still trying to improve. He's cut off 20 pounds by quitting the hard stuff, and when I accepted his invitation to slap him in the stomach, I found it hard as stone.

Three of his books are now being made into movies—"Farewell to Arms," "The Sun Also Rises" and "The Old Man and the Sea."

MIKE CONNELLY:

Talent's Where You Find It

HOLLYWOOD—Frank Sinatra had to bow out of Jerry Lewis's June 8 Spec because of a previous commitment . . . Talent is Where You Find It Dept: Lois Powell, a mailroom clerk at RKO, sold her first story, "Six Bullets," to Dick Powell's Zane Grey Theatre . . . P. S.: It's not what you're thinking — Lois and Dick are NOT related!

While shooting "Sheena, Queen of the Jungle" in Mexico Arthur Pierson claims he invented a new gimmick called "Tequilavision." It has a very wide screen, it's in color, has third dimension and is slightly out of focus.

MOREY AMSTERDAM's great gimmick for his new nightly show on Hollywood's KTLA, which competes against old movies on other stations: he offers viewers a synopsis of each and every plot of each and every opposition film!

The real reason writer Rod Serling won't let CBS-TV repeat his Emmy-winning "Requiem for a Heavyweight" on Playhouse 90 this summer is this: the movie studios are eagerly sniffing at Serling's script and that movie moola is hard to resist . . . Declaims Dean Martin: "What most dolls dread about their past is its length!"

FOR WHAT SHOULD turn out to be a wonderful lesson in the art of double-talk, he sure to tune in today on CBS-TV's Face the Nation. A panel of newsmen will take a crack at the Soviet's Nikita Khrushchev. The special hour-long telecast has been filmed in Moscow, with a linguist expert to interpret Khrushchev's answers.

California's Malibu-Zuma fires of last winter will be the stars of "Fire," a Climax! segment

—but Havana now finds him acting kinder toward the autograph bugs and camera fanatics than anybody who ever came to town. A bust of him, put up in the Florida bar, right above his favorite corner, is a little embarrassing. People like to get him to sit under it or look at it for pictures.

"How can you look at a bust of yourself in a bar?" he asked.

AS ALWAYS HE wouldn't talk Cuban politics. But when I mentioned that a girl had told me she couldn't go to the university because it was closed to punish rioting students, Papa said: "I think if the students of Columbia University bombed City Hall, it would attract a little attention in New York."

His conversation showed he is up on all the sports events—he might come to New York for the Ray Robinson-Carmen Basilio fight . . . and he spoke of the Hank Bauer fracas at the Copacabana.

"Guys like that have to be careful about fighting," he said. "I used to cool a few fellows myself when I was young," he laughed, "but I haven't hit anybody since I was solvent!"

Mary lifted me practically over her head as we were leaving to show she's in good shape herself. We rode back into Havana talking excitedly of this remarkably gracious, hospitable and yet successful couple.

THE WEEKEND WINDUP . . .

"DON'T PRINT THAT!": A record company's sorry its gal star has a new hit disk; it came after a string of flops, and just before contract renewal time—and now she's tough about signing . . . A famed stage and screen star is in a local hospital "to drain out the alcohol."

Dick Shawn's act kidding Sammy Davis Jr., is titled "The Will Travel Trio, featuring Mr. Fantastically Fabulous Jr." . . . Mike Stokely is coming to town to recruit six panelists for his "Pantomime Quiz" . . . Tony Franciosa, who got $1,000,000 worth of contracts after "Hatful of Rain," was a blood donor — at $25 a pint — not long ago . . . One of BMI's hottest song writers is Bob Meusel, of UP's London bureau.

Mario Lanza, now in Italy, wants to bring back a string of fighters . . . Eli Wallach may do Steve Allen's play, "Jose," on Broadway . . . Dale Robertson and Mary Murphy, who were having it annulled, will give their marriage another try . . . A Broadway playwright was told by the cops—after neighbors' complaints—to quit the nude sunbathing . . . Karl Malden'll wear a crew-cut wig in the play, "Egghead."

Around Town

with Hildy Crawford

The long Memorial Day weekend . . . finds the Village crowded with vacationers . . . down for some desert sunshine and relaxation . . . Their presence is registered by "No Vacancy" signs . . . and "Standing Room Only" at the night spots . . . Cars crowd the streets and pedestrians the sidewalks . . . The sunshine is brilliant . . . the flowers are blossoming in hedges . . . and a desert vacation has never seemed more attractive . . . It seems predictable that many of those here this weekend . . . will like the sample so well . . . that they'll be coming back during June . . . as often as they can . . .

One of those pleasant end-of-May parties . . . that are always so much fun . . . was the one Thursday night given by Jan King at her El Alameda home . . . Jan, herself, CBS's Hank Untermyer (he's been Jan's frequent escort this winter) and his sister Mrs. Morris Newburger of New York City, who was guest of honor . . . just got down from San Francisco in time for their own party . . . There were about 50 there . . . and lots of conversation and jokes . . . and Ted Grouya played the piano . . .

Jan brought down a novelty from San Francisco . . . It was a big, round, crusty loaf of bread . . . that had been hollowed out and packed with tiny sandwiches . . . The David Margolises were there . . . and they're just back from San Francisco, too . . . Dave and Jack Dempsey own the Caravan Lodge up there . . . at Larkin and Eddy Streets . . .

Just returned, too, were Dorothy and Dr. Sam Salinger . . . They've been in Washington, D.C., where he attended a medical convention . . . then went on to New York where they saw six shows in a weeks time . . . They stopped over in their former hometown of Chicago en route home . . . and Dorothy was slightly injured in a bus accident . . . Not the kind you think . . . this was caused by a door closing too soon . . . The Salingers will be here for a month or more before going to Santa Monica for the summer . . . Orph Frank, Dorothy Gray, Rose Mints and Irene Kenyon arrived together . . . Irene's leaving next week . . . and will visit Brentwood, Palo Alto, San Francisco and Sacramento . . . before returning to Acapulco . . .

Also there were the Billys, Maoutis, Walter Braunschweiger, Earl Coffmans . . . Howard Morris, Walt Sibberts, Walter Freundes, Winsome Courtney and Hal Hayes . . . Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Childs, from across the street . . . and the Virgil Davidsons of Los Angeles . . . the Ray Corlisses, Marj Pohl, Nikki Wilk and several others . . .

The Glenn Austins will spend next week at their Bel-Air home . . . and Vivian is going to take Angela to Disneyland on Thursday . . . They'll fly over by helicopter from the L.A. Airport . . . After their week in town . . . the Austins will be back to spend the rest of June here . . . Their summer plans are indefinite . . . as Vivian may go back to Mayors in another attempt to correct her eye trouble . . .

The Lester Selig family will move up to their ranch home . . . on the Bench above Banning . . . in mid June . . . The A. R. Simons have rented a bay front house at Newport for the summer . . . and will go there July 1st . . . after St and Lynne get back from a two week trip to Michigan . . .

Maggie and Co Thornton who have just returned from a week of golf at Del Monte Lodge . . . said farewell Wednesday to Edward Brennan . . . who returned to his Chicago home . . . after a months visit with the Thorntons . . . Maggie and Co have rented a house at Laguna . . . and will move down July 1 to spend the summer . . . Their sons Tom and Bill, both employed in Los Angeles, will weekend with them there . . .

Bob Palmer is at the Acacia Inn in Pasadena . . . for the summer . . . Frances (Mrs. Burnham) Bigelow has her left arm in a splint . . . following a fall in which she chipped the wrist bone . . . Evelyn Schiff, who returned to Chicago last week, has written friends that Sydney is in Wesley hospital . . . for observation and treatment . . .

George Goldberg has been inspecting his hotels in the Midwest . . . and getting in a round of golf at the same time . . . Among other places, he's been in Chicago and Phoenix . . . He'll be back in Palm Springs next week . . . and will divide his summer . . . between his ranch in Idylwild and Palm Desert . . . and his cruiser at Balboa Bay Club . . . George is driving a new Thunderbird . . . which he picked up in Chicago . . .

Peggy and Randy Christie leave in a few days for Los Angeles . . . and plan to go to Carmel and San Francisco and possibly Canada later . . . but they'll be back and forth to their Thunderbird home this summer . . . They'll be guests of Kay and Dolph Obergef at the fabulous Omar Khayyam ball at the Beverly Hilton on June 7 . . .

Miss Addie Hubbard, manager of Bullocks, and Mrs. Mildred Jackson, Palm Springs realtor, leave today for a summer trip to Europe. The two women leave Los Angeles on TWA tonight for New York and by tomorrow night will be flying across the Atlantic headed for Portugal. They'll do Lisbon, Madrid and a seven-day tour of the Palaces of Andalusia from Granada.

They will visit other parts of Spain and Italy and Austria, Germany, Denmark and Sweden together. Then Miss Hubbard will continue a tour of the Scandinavian countries, while Mrs. Jackson will go to Belgium and Holland and to England to visit her son Capt. F. E. Jackson, test pilot, who's stationed there.

Meeting again in England the two Palm Springers will fly back to New York together around the end of July. Mrs. Jackson will visit her daughter and family in Minneapolis, while Miss Hubbard will return to Palm Springs.

Court of Awards Palm Springs Girl Scouts will hold their Court of Awards on Monday night, June 3 at 7:30 p.m. in the Katherine Finchy cafeteria. Girl Scouts from Desert Hot Springs, North Palm Springs, and Palm Springs will receive achievement badges at the Court, which is open to the public.

A PLEASANT END-OF-MAY party was the one given Thursday evening by Jan King, on right, at her El Alameda home. Jan, who's Bob Hope's script secretary and shuttles back and forth between Hollywood and the Village and far places, honored Mrs. Morris Newburger of New York City, on the left. Between the two women is Henry Untermyer, CBS correspondent and brother of Mrs. Newburger. There were around 50 at the party. (Desert Sun Photo).

Luncheon Is Bon Voyage for Travelers

Bon voyage parties are very much in evidence this time of the year, like the one at Shadow Mountain Club Wednesday afternoon.

Co-hosted by Mrs. Grace Steenberg and Mrs. Etta Smith, and honoring travellers Mrs. Tom Holland, who sails June 5, aboard the Mariposa for Australia, and Mrs. Smith, who sails August 8, aboard the Monterey for a six week cruise in the South Pacific.

Miniature ships surrounded by pink roses and smilax made a very attractive centerpiece and place cards in the form of blue and white ships added to the decor.

Among the guests bidding "bon voyage" to the travellers were: Mrs. Howard Matthews, Bow Herbert, Claire Kinne, Frank Sorenson, Peg Rashall and Joseph Stermer.

Three Generations to Appear Together on Jerry Lewis Show

By ALINE MOSBY

United Press Hollywood Writer HOLLYWOOD — A new show-business career will begin for an 11-year-old schoolboy, Gary Lewis, and an old one will be revived for his grandfather, Danny Lewis, on television June 8.

This double event will grace Jerry Lewis' second NBC-TV show as a single because he's the father of Gary and the son of Danny. The idea of helping his son start in show business seemed a natural for a program near Father's Day because Jerry will be repeating an incident from his own life.

"I did a number, 'Sonny Boy,' twelfth 25 years ago in vaudeville—that's how I got started," Jerry explained during a three-way interview with the Lewis clan in the comedian's home.

"Out of the blue I started doing this same song with my own son at home—and realized it would be a good way to break Gary in."

Jerry's two guest stars appear overwhelmed by their new jobs, indicating show business is a disease that once contracted hangs on for life. In the Lewis home, Jerry's father happily was thumbing through photographs of the trio taken during rehearsal.

"Aren't these wonderful? For 30 years I was in vaudeville, clubs, radio," said the elder Lewis, who is young and good-looking enough to be Jerry's brother.

"I played the Palace Theater in New York in 1933, my act was 'Songs in a Nostalgic Manner.' Then Jerry went in there four years later — singing my same song, 'Sonny Boy.' His Jolson-type songs, you know, are what I used to do. When you hear us sing you can't tell us apart."

"My wife, Rose, accompanied me in vaudeville, and when Jerry was 8 he got in the act. I didn't want him in show business because I'd had lean years and I didn't want him to struggle but he got through to his mother."

"Before we turned around he was 18 and a married man, then with Dean Martin and a big star. We're still pinching ourselves. It's like a dream."

Five years ago Danny gave up his act to help Jerry manage his records. How does the older Lewis feel about having his son pass him up on the fame sweepstakes?

"Everybody likes recognition, sure I'd like my name on a marquee," admitted Danny. "I'm proud to be Jerry's father, but when people introduce me as his father — well, I'd like them to know my name."

"Hey, this is my interview," broke in grandson Gary. "I'm going to be like my dad. I want to be just like him. Dad has taught me how to get the right notes when I sing. We're going to be dressed exactly alike on the show-tuxedos! With the money I GET I'm getting a new set of drums."

Rodeo Clowns At Riverside Said 'Bravest'

Two of the bravest men to perform at the Sheriff's Rodeo, June 22-23, in De Anza Park, Riverside will be Sherman Crane and Frank Ellis, clowns.

Observers, watching with amusement during the two-day event, will note that when the bull riding contest starts, the arena clears out and the true work of the clowns can be seen.

Clowns are almost universally regarded as happy go lucky personalities with few cares or responsibilities. Rodeo clowns are different. It's up to the clowns to move in and distract the bull to give a rider the chance to dismount and reach safety. If a contestant is thrown and injured, they must get the bull away and keep it busy until the cowboy is rescued.

They will taunt the bull until he is tired and tiring away. Apparently done to please the crowd, the bulls have good memories, and the next time this particular brahma tosses its rider, he'll go first for the familiar figure in the ridiculous shirt and baggy pants. And that's precisely why the clown is there.

WAVING HELLO to Palm Springs are bandleader Horace Heidt, center, and his twin sons Jerry, left, and Jack. Horace isn't exactly a Village newcomer, but Jerry and Jack, who are now managing Heidt's famous Lone Palm Hotel, are still comparatively recent arrivals. Both boys are Stanford University graduates and are now winding up three years each with the Air Force—Jerry as a jet pilot at March Air Force Base and Jack as an investigator for the Office of Special Investigations. Now on leave, they'll be civilians next month. Jerry is still the family bachelor, while Jack lives at the hotel with his wife, Mary Ann, and son, John. Planning to stay open for the summer, Jack and Jerry have initiated a family plan whereby two children under 12 in each family are not charged for living quarters, and special summer rates allow a seven-day stay for the price of five. School Menus Listed as Aid To Mothers in Meal Planning Menus to be served in schools in the Palm Springs Unified District next week are listed below to aid mothers in avoiding duplication of meals.

The cafeteria will be closed on Friday, the last day of school.

The High School menu follows:

Monday—Chicken rice soup or buttered corn, Salisbury steak or ham and cheese sandwich; cole slaw, tomato juice, or carrot and raisin salad; gingerbread, fruit jello, or sliced peaches; milk.

Tuesday—VEGETABLE soup or zucchini; chili beans or hot dog; green salad with tomatoes, macaroni salad, or lemonade; apple sauce, peanut butter cookie, or frosted jello; milk.

Wednesday—Cook's choice, to use all available supplies, following the approved menu pattern.

Thursday—Split pea soup or peas; creamed turkey on rice or cheeseburger, potato salad, carrot sticks, or lettuce egg salad; cookies, chocolate pie with whipped cream, or melon; milk.

THE ELEMENTARY Schools menu follows:

Monday—Salisbury steak, buttered corn or carrots, cole slaw, peanut butter sandwich, fruit jello, milk.

Tuesday—Chili beans, cracker, green salad with tomatoes and French dressing, whole wheat roll and butter, apple sauce with peanut butter cookie, milk.

Wednesday—Cook's choice.

Thursday—Cheeseburger, lettuce egg and pea salad, orange juice bar, cookie, milk.

Crest View Hotel Addition Starts Monday

Construction of $70,000 worth of new additions for Crest View Hotel, 950 North Indian Avenue, will roll into full swing Monday. Hotel Operator Sigmund Ehrens announced today.

Ehrens said that the hotel is building 11 new units, each fully furnished in modern decor and containing its own individual refrigerated air conditioning equipment.

The addition of 11 units brings the total of Crest View apartments to 28.

The hotel, which went into operations May 17, 1956, was the first new Palm Springs Hotel to open during the summer.

Construction is in the hands of Ryan and Ryan Contractors and is under the supervision of Richard S. Douglass, Crest View co-owner.

TODAY'S SPORTS PARADE

By OSCAR FRALEY
United Press Sports Writer
Reg. U. S. Pat. Off.

NEW YORK (AP)—Fearless Fraley's facts and figures:
Former National Open champion Lew Worsham says that golf has proved conclusively that switch-hitting Mickey Mantle of the New York Yankees is a natural right-handed hitter.

Lew played with Mantle in Florida and asked him whether he could hit a golf ball left handed. Mantle told him he couldn't and agreed with the Oakmont pro that this was fairly conclusive proof that he was naturally right handed. But you can't sell that to some of these right-handed pitchers in the American League against whom the Mick bats left handed.

TED WILLIAMS of the Boston Red Sox recently played his first round of golf—and shot around 100. He hit the ball a ton off the tee but had his woes around the green. His reaction: "Putting ought to be ruled out of the sport."

Emerson Dickman, former pitcher for the Boston Red Sox, is one of those who believe that the spitball should be brought back—officially.

"With the live ball and the small parks, the pitchers have enough troubles and should get a little help," he insists. And, after all, the National League has a growing list of "dev-droppers" since Warren Giles gave Lew Burdette a clean bill of health.

YOU CAN'T EAT those headlines. Len Eshmont, the former Fordham and professional football star who died recently of a liver ailment, left his wife and three small daughters virtually destitute. Jim Bahktier, University of Virginia fullback who was one of Eshmont's charges, has started a memorial fund and contributions may be sent to him at the university of Charlottesville.

Jay Hebert is one of golf's longest hitters and, at times, an impatient man. During the Palm Beach pro-celebrity tournament he was playing behind Pory Oliver and, on occasion, unloaded a tee shot that sailed right through the foursome ahead.

"Wasn't that Herbert playing behind you?" Pory was asked.
"Nope," grinned the ever-jolly porkchop. "He wasn't playing behind us. He was playing over us."

Little League Season to Get Under Way Monday

Mayor Boyd Slated to Toss Out First Ball

First Game to Start at 7 p.m.; Games Every Monday, Friday

Ceremonies launching the 1957 Little League season will start at 6:45 p. m. Monday with Mayor Florian G. Boyd speaking and throwing out the first ball.

The first game, between the Cameron Stars and the Hathaway Buick Braves will get under way at 7 p. m. The second game, at 8:30, will match the Boys' Club, sponsored by the Palm Springs Water Company, and the Junior Police, sponsored by the Palm Springs Police Officers Association.

GAMES ARE SCHEDULED every Monday and Friday night at 7 and 8:30 p. m., double-headers each night.

Howard Haddock, City Recreation Department superintendent, said that the Little League wants to acknowledge its gratitude to the sponsors of the teams, making it possible for the boys, aged 8 to 12, to play.

"We want to thank the sponsors of the teams, the sponsors of the signs on the fence and the Desert Circus for making it possible for the boys to play baseball."

"WITHOUT THEIR AID and financial backing it would not be possible to have the finest in equipment, insurance and supervision," he said.

"Special thanks should go to the men who do all the work with little recognition, the managers, Mark Hopp of the Hathaway-Buick Braves, Gene Holmes of the Junior Police, Frank Daniels of the Boys' Club and Jim Schilling of the Cameron Stars, and all of the other aides and coaches."

"WITHOUT THEM, or the originators of the Little League here, Al Weingarten, Bill Brubaker, Harold West, Cub Parker and Jimmy Morton, to name a few, the youngsters' summer recreation program would still be a dream. Special thanks is extended Bill Brubaker for his tremendous work in the past years."

Herb Esbitt is president of the Little League, H. G. Woods, vice president, F. O. Cerney, treasurer, Jim Morton in charge of publicity and John Herrera, police sergeant, commissioner.

The Little League officers expressed their appreciation of the cooperation of the City of Palm Springs and Recreation Department Superintendent Howard Haddock "for furnishing the finest field possible and its excellent supervision."

KELLER REJOINS YANKS

NEW YORK (AP)—Charlie (King Kong) Keller, who hung up his uniform five years ago, will put it back on again next Tuesday when he rejoins the New York Yankees as a coach in Cleveland.

Pot of Gold Awaits Dodgers and Giants on West Coast

NEW YORK (AP)—There's a huge pot of gold, in the form of a multi-million-dollar pay-as-you-see television deal, waiting for the Brooklyn Dodgers and New York Giants in California.

The deal was made public when Mark Sullivan, president of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co., said in San Francisco Friday his firm is negotiating with the Skiatron Corp. of New York to set up a coin box, closed circuit television network on the West Coast if and when the two clubs transfer there.

The Dodgers, it was reported here, would receive a 10-year contract at two million dollars a year to televise all their home games at Los Angeles and probably their road games also. The Giants could participate in the same deal at San Francisco.

Presently, the Dodgers receive a $750,000 annual TV-radio income at Brooklyn while the Giants get $600,000 for their rights.

"It is a complicated problem, but technically it is feasible and we think arrangements could be worked out that would be mutually satisfactory," Sullivan said.

Skiatron already has applied to the Federal Communications Commission for permission to set in operation pay-as-you-see TV.

The FCC shortly will authorize testing of the various pay-TV plans in certain areas of the country. Coinbox TV has not been approved by the government as yet.

The San Francisco Examiner reported that Dodge President Walter O'Malley already has accepted two million dollars as part payment for the closed circuit TV rights at Los Angeles. The Examiner said O'Malley used the money to purchase the Los Angeles franchise in the Pacific Coast League last year.

Seal Stadium Ready For Major League

HANA MAUI, T.H. (AP)—Paul Fagan, owner of Seals Stadium in San Francisco, removed another obstacle to the transfer of the New York Giants there when he announced yesterday that he would lease the park to the National League club for two years. He said his lease with the San Francisco Seals "can be cancelled whenever a major league franchise comes to San Francisco." The Seals' lease expires in September, 1958.

P.S. Elks Meet Colton Monday

Palm Springs entry in the Colton Colt League is scheduled to meet the Colton Colts Monday night at the Colton High School baseball park.

After dropping their first game to the Citizens Bank team of Colton last Monday, the local Colts defeated the Colton Aces last Wednesday afternoon, 8 to 2, and now hold a 1-1 record in the Colton League.

NEW YORK (AP)—Harold Johnson, 126 1/2, Philadelphia, knocked out Clarence Hinnant, 173, Washington, D.C. 1.
PARIS: Ralph Dupas, 139 New Orleans, drew with Seraphin Perrier, 141 France 10.

Mhoon-Mhoon, 2; Desert Hot Springs, 1.

Mhoon and Mhoon clung to its runner-up spot in Desert Softball League Friday night when they defeated a strong Desert Hot Springs team 2 to 1 at the Polo Grounds.

Bill Tichenor of the DHS Fireballs hurled a 3-hitter in a mound duel with Paul Nielson of Mhoon and Mhoon who limited his opponents to four hits.

It was the first meeting this year between the two teams who have a first round postponed game to play off.

The score:
Mhoon-Mhoon 2 3 1
Fireballs 1 4 1
Nielson and Buchanan; Tichenor and Durand.

Doug Ford Out In Front by 7 At New Rochelle

NEW ROCHELLE, N.Y. (AP)—Masters champion Doug Ford of Mahopac, N.Y., who has vowed to clean up "while I'm hot," was hotter than ever today as he set out to fatten his lead over bantam Ben Hogan in the fourth round of the Palm Beach Round Robin golf championship.

Out front by seven points with sizzling rounds of 69-66-64, the sprinting Ford tackled three stars who have been playing in tough luck in this unique championship in which points are won or lost by comparing medal scores with each foursome. He was favored to add a bundle of points to his score of plus 23 in today's four-some with U.S. Open champ Cary Middlecoff of Miami Beach, Fla., (minus 2), Peter Thomson of Australia (minus 10) and defending champion Gene Littler of Palm Springs, Calif., (minus 16).

Pony Leaguers to Start Season Play Next Week

Play is scheduled to start Monday at 5:30 p. m. in the Desert County Pony League with Palm Springs playing their first game in the five-team loop at Indio on Wednesday.

All Pony League games will start at 5:30 p. m. with a few exceptions.

Palm Springs will play their first home game at 7:30 p. m. on Saturday, June 15, at the Polo Grounds and their second on Tuesday, June 18, at 5:45 p. m. at the Polo Grounds.

Teams in the Desert County Pony League are Palm Springs, Banning, Beaumont, Indio Braves and Indio Red Sox.

The schedule for the local teams puts them against the Indio Red Sox there on June 5, Beaumont here June 15, Banning here June 18 and at Indio against the Indio Braves June 21.

The Pony League is for boys, 13-14 years of age.

Herb Rauch, John Marinko, Victor Reys and Gene Holmes are in charge of both the local Pony League and Colt League teams.

"Sunny Jim" in the sun
RACING'S grand old trainer, "Sunny Jim" Fitzsimmons, still maintains his place in the racing sun as his latest champion, Bold Ruler, adds to his prestige in the three-year-old division with a victory recently in the Fountains. Mr. Fitz, now 82, has trained some great ones, including Gallant Fox and Nashua. In a recent interview Fitz said, "Gallant Fox was best but since Nashua was a better two-year-old I'll have to give him the edge." These photos are by Frank Kuchirchuk. (International)

WHITE SOX INCREASE LEAD TO FOUR GAMES IN A.L.; PHILS CLIMB IN N.L.

By MILTON RICHMAN
United Press Sports Writer
Al Lopez never had it so good at Cleveland.

With the Indians, Lopez had some mighty fine pitching, but he's getting an even better brand at Chicago where every starter on his staff is pitching in with the kind of complete game victories that could bring the White Sox their first pennant in 33 years.

It was Bob Keegan's turn Friday night and the 34-year-old right hander came through with a sparkling four-hit, 6-0 victory over Detroit that increased the White Sox American League lead to four games.

CATCHER SHERM Lollar gave Keegan all the margin he needed when he blasted a two-run homer off Frank Lary in the first inning and Walt Dropo added a little icing to the cake with a grand slam homer in the eighth.

Baltimore defeated the second-place Yankees, 3-1; Kansas City beat Cleveland by the same 3-1 score, and Washington edged Boston, 3-2.

In the National League, St. Louis topped Milwaukee, 4-3; Philadelphia nipped Brooklyn, 2-1, and New York defeated Pittsburgh, 3-2. Rain washed out the Cincinnati-Chicago game.

RAY MOORE held the Yankees to five hits in out-pitching Bob Turley. Al Pilarcik put the Orioles in front with a third inning homer and then drove in another run with a sacrifice fly in the fifth.

Johnny Kilbane Loses Fight Against Cancer

Cleveland (AP)—Former featherweight champion Johnny Kilbane, who won all but four of his fights in the ring, failed in his battle against death.

The popular battler, one of the greatest fighters in the history of the ring, died Friday at his home after a long fight against cancer.

Net Sale of Associated Dry Goods Shows Large Increase

Net sales of Associated Dry Goods Corporation for the first 13-week period ended May 4, of the current fiscal year rose to $51-222,000 from $49,142,000 in the similar period ended April 28, 1956, Robert J. McKim Associated President, announced today.

Estimated earnings before federal income taxes gained to $2-200,000 for the 13 weeks ended
May 4 from $1,900,000 for the similar period of 1956.

After provision for federal income taxes of $1,150,000, estimated net earnings for the three months ended May 4, advanced to $1,050,000, equal to 56 cents a common share. For the comparable 13 weeks ended April 18, 1956, net earnings amounted to $900,000, equal to 46 cents a common share, after provision of $1-000,000 for federal income taxes.

Net sales for the 12 months ended May 4, 1957, rose to $225-816,000 from $200,989,000 for the like period a year earlier, McKim revealed.

CC Rotary Club Sets Breakfast

The Cathedral City Rotary Club is sponsoring a "Chuck Wagon
Breakfast" Sunday morning, June
2, at Rainbow Rancho Trout Lakes in Whitewater Canyon. The time has been set at 9:30 a. m. and the breakfast will be catered by Johnny Boyle.

Rotary members, their families and friends are invited to participate in this neighborly get-together. Tickets may be had at the gate for a nominal donation, or at Scott's Desertwear, Down's Shoe Tree, Rainbow Room and the Farmhouse.

The Wonder Palms Hotel being closed for the season, the Rotary Club will hold its Monday luncheon meeting June 3 at the Rainbow Room, Cathedral Canyon Drive and Broadway.

Capacity Crowd Attends Dinner At Desert Moon

A capacity crowd attended the annual dinner of the Thousand Palms Chamber of Commerce, held at the Desert Moon Ranch.

Dr. W. Scott Lewis, aided by his attractive wife entertained those assembled with an interesting and informative slide-lecture concerning aspects of the local desert.

Acting as host and hostesses to the 80 guests were Mrs. Mina Welcome, Miss Elizabeth Nelson and Dewey Wallace.

Among those present were Mr.
and Mrs. Donald Carnes, representing the Indio Chamber of Commerce; Mr. and Mrs. James Cavett, representing the Palm Springs Chamber of Commerce;
the Charles Wallaces, he was recently elected a member of the school board; the Walter Bovees, newly returned from their Caribbean cruise; and Harry Oliver.
Down from Los Angeles, especially for the evening, were the H. M.
Lentzes, the Paul Blancartes and Adolf Krantz.

The evening was planned and arranged by Patricia Jane Dyal,
Mrs. Harold Sloper and Mrs. Jack Singer. Assisting their committee were Mesdames Charles Wallace, Joseph Obrazik and Charles Cal-lejo and the Misses Helen and Grace Hyde.

Rancho Mirage

Funning and sunning at Greene's Desert Lodge for the week were Mr. and Mrs. Martin Webb of Long Beach and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Elott here from Portland, Ore. Down for the weekend were
Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Johnson,
Los Angeles; Sam Drucker of Glendale, and Robert Edmiston of Los Angeles, with Hank Gogerty's
Los Angeles office; Mr. and Mrs.
H. Quand from Fresno, Mr. Russell Geer, San Gabriel, and from

Scout Meeting Set for June 5

Harry Hill, district commissioner for the Boy Scouts of America, announced today that an important meeting of the Palm Springs District officers, committeemen, Scoutmasters, institutional representatives and unit committeemen, will be held at the Boy Scout House at 7:30 p. m. Wednesday,
June 5.

The Scout house, which is located on Sunny Dunes Road, is next to the Paddock Pool building.
The meeting will be a planning conference.

Stop Thief!
PROVINCETOWN, Mass. —
(UPI) — Mrs. Julia McLean was walking along a street when a big Airedale grabbed her handbag and ran away. The bag was found not far from the scene, but a wallet and a change purse containing a total of $12 were missing. They were later found in the yard of the dog's owner, with contents intact.

MEET UNCLE JOHN, who for more than three months teased readers of the Desert Sun with a series of advertisements—warning all that "Uncle John is Coming to Town." He arrived in the Village this week, and opened Uncle John's Pancake House, located at 1983
North Palm Canyon Drive, at the entrance to the Palm Springs Pueblo. Uncle John lists 18 different kinds of waffles on his menu, including coconut, potato, strawberry and even chocolate. (Desert

Morley Starts 5,000-Mile Trip

World Reporter John Morley, whose column "After Hours" appears every Saturday in The Desert Sun, has embarked on a 5,000-mile reporting tour of the Iron Curtain, Middle East and Far East.

In a letter to Sun Publisher
Ward Risvold, Morley confided that he is on his way to Russia,
Poland, Czechoslovakia, Romania,
the Middle East, Formosa and Korea and will return to the United States next fall.

"I will again make every effort to report the unadulterated truth, as I see it, in the column, as I have tried to do in the past," Morley wrote.

Renowned as a columnist, hard-hitting reporter and well-informed lecturer, Morley has covered the world's news beats for almost 20 years, creating explosive headlines from trouble zones ranging from the Iron Curtain to Israel and the Far East.

New York pays its governor more than any other state, $50,000.
New Jersey pays $30,000; five oth-
